DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On August 4, 2020, Richard Knippschild filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). On October 18, 2018, Petitioner received an influenza vaccine, which vaccine is listed on the Vaccine Injury Table, 42 C.F.R. § 100.3(a). Petitioner alleges that he suffered Parsonage-Turner syndrome ("brachial neuritis") as a result of the flu vaccine. ECF No. 35 at 1. On May 11, 2022, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated September 30, 2022 (ECF No.40), requesting a total award of $22,077.31 (representing $21,537.95 in fees and $539.36 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that he incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Id. @ 40. Respondent reacted to the motion on October 4, 2022, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded at the Court's discretion. ECF No. 41. Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $22,077.31 (representing $21,537.95 in fees and $539.36 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
